

SOUTHALL GAME OFF

WYCOMBE Wanderers' Rothmans Isthmian League encounter with Southall tonight (Tuesday) has been postponed.

Southall were held to a 2-2 draw at East Ham in the London Senior Cup on Saturday

Southall staged their replay at Western Road last night (Monday) and they must have been bitterly disappointed to go down at home 1-0.

No alternative game has been arranged by the Blues and they will hold a normal training session. This will allow manager Ted Powell to test the fitness of John Priestley and Tony Horseman, both of whom missed Saturday's 3-2 defeat at Slough Town.

That victory puts Slough into fourth place in the table while Wanderers missed out on the chance to go top. Hitchin still lead by a point but they now have two matches in hand.

Only two league matches were played in Division One on Saturday as most clubs were involved in the London Senior Cup.

Although the Blues' game is off tonight, there are five Division One games on the programme and Dagenham have the chance to take over top position if they can win at Barking. Meanwhile Leatherhead will be hoping to cash in on their F.A. Cup win on Saturday when they take on Croydon at home.
